

Historic House - 1810

Cohasset Village, Cohasset. A village colonial furnished in the furnishings of the period. Open June through September, 383-0773.

Maritime Museum — Cohasset Village. Originally Old Bates Chandlery built in 1700, this building now contains relics of the town's early seafaring and fishing industry, including Minot Light-house artifacts, 383-0773.

Independence Gown Museum More than 600 costumes (a collection second only to the Smithsonian Institution) of the early Cohasset families are housed here. Open June through September.

Old Ship Church

Main Street, Hingham. Oldest church in America in continuous use. Carvings and epitaphs on the gravestones in the cemetery behind the church date to the 1600's. Guided tours every day except Mon., July and August. 749-1679

The Drummer Stetson House 1716 Hanover Center, Hanover. Built by Samuel Stetson, this house holds much local history. Open to the public by appointment. Owned by the town of Hanover.

Sparrow Focus

Museums & Galleries

Helen Bumpus Gallery

Duxbury. Duxbury Free Library, 147 George Street. 934-2721. June Show. David Neubauer; July, group exhibition; Aug. 14-Sept. 14, Ann Flaten Pixley, Post and Paper Series.

Old Ordinary — 17th century

19 Lincoln St., Hingham. Hingham's Historical Society's House Museum. The authentically furnished 17th century 14 room building features a tool collection and exhibition of Revolutionary War possessions of Hingham Patriots and Tories. Open mid-June to Labor Day. 749-3509

Old Derby Academy Building, 1819

Contains the Morton Smith Room, a small school room, an original Hingham rope walk, several paintings and memorabilia of the town's earlier days. Open by appointment May 26 through August.

Art Complex, Inc.

Duxbury. 189 Alden Street. Fri.-Sun., 2-5 p.m. except legal holidays. Also by appointment. Charles Weyerhauser, Director. No charge. 934-6634. An eight-year old contemporary building inspired by its surroundings, the woods, the land and the sea. Lectures and concerts scheduled periodically. The museum's own collection includes paintings, drawings, prints, sculptures, ceramics, glass, Shaker furniture and costumes. Art Reference Library. Periodic tea ceremonies in tea-house.

Cranberry World

Plymouth. Water St. Open daily June through September. Open all holidays. Groups must make reservations. Free. 747-1000. Monthly exhibits in the gallery. June, The Quilt Question — traditional vs. contemporary quilts; July, Plymouth Photo Club — theme, Five Seasons; August, South Shore Art Association — paintings and sculpture by members; September, bird carvings by David Murray, bird photographs by Werner Meinel.

South Shore Art Center

Cohasset. 103 Ripley Road. 383-9548. Monthly exhibits in new gallery throughout the year. Mon.-Fri., 12 noon-4 p.m.

Bare Cove Gallery

Hingham. 55 South St. 749-3143. This 11 year-old gallery features prints, watercolors and paintings by New England's finest professional artists. One person shows alternate with monthly group exhibits. Pottery and stained glass, expert custom framing and corporate leasing program. Owned by Diane Gallagher, Jean Cain and Anne Szep.

Schnabel Galleries

South Hingham. Tidings Plain. 738 Main St. 749-3671. Hank and Eleanor Schnabel, owners. Antiques, 19th and 20th century paintings, American Watercolor Society members, prints, art supplies, custom framing, conservation restoration, needlework stretched.

Norwell Art Complex - Queen Anne Cottage

Norwell. 25 Washington St., Rte. 53. 878-9156. Four Galleries containing contemporary two and three-dimensional sculptural crafts, fiber arts, metal designs and paintings and prints from all over the United States. Monthly shows and demonstrations.

Annual Heritage Days

Aug. 10 - 11 - 12 1979

Bazaar - Arts & Crafts - Road Race
Boat Parade - Concerts - Historical Tours

Sponsored by: Scituate Harbor - at Cole Parkway
Scituate Chamber of Commerce in co-operation with the Plymouth County Development Council

Visit Cohasset's Village Museums

of the Cohasset Historical Society

Independence Gowns - Historic House - Maritime

Open Summer afternoons except Mondays
1:30 - 4:30

The Deli

Rte. 123 in Norwell Center

DELI COLD CUTS • U.S.D.A. CHOICE BEEF • GOURMET FOODS • EXOTIC COFFEE BEANS EXPERT CATERING IMPORTED CHEESES

French Vanilla
Irish Coffee
Cinnamon
Butter Almond
Chocolate Chip

Now it's here!
Bassetts
EST. 1861

ICE CREAM

of Philadelphia

"World's Finest Ice Cream"
The New York Times

Butterscotch Vanilla
Rum Raisin
Chocolate Marshmallow
Vanilla Fudge
Double Chocolate Chocolate Chip

In our seating area serving sandwiches, salads, quiches and of course,

Bassetts
EST. 1861

Sparrow, Inc.

Call 659-4076

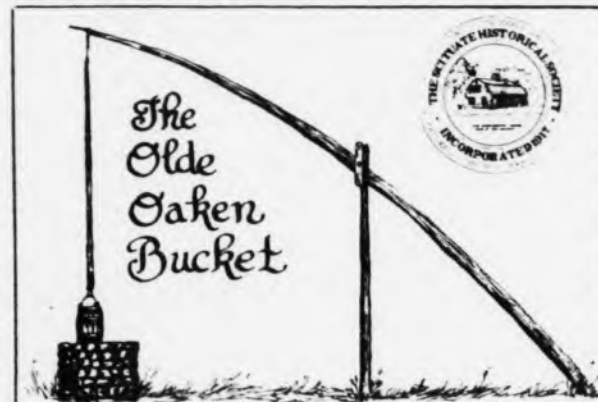

Open 7 Days A Week 10 - 8

at Herring
Brook
Hill

Help save the World Famous "Old Oaken Bucket Homestead" Scituate, Mass.

For a donation of $10, $50, $100 to $500 etc. tax deductible, you will receive an attractive parchment certificate like sample above handwritten with whatever name you wish stating the number of sq. ft. you have preserved of the homestead made famous by 19th century poet Samuel Woodworth in his poem, "The Old Oaken Bucket."

Make checks payable to Old Oaken Bucket Fund, Scituate Federal Savings and Loan Ass'n., Scituate, Ma. 02066

A Scituate Historical Society
Grant of Land

to of Sq. Ft.
This donation is to preserve for the future
The Old Oaken Bucket Homestead

Signed

This Certificate is given in recognition of the generous support of the holder and does not convey any rights in the land, and is non-transferable.

Name _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____